

enjoy it forever!

The 1957 Chevy is not only a modern classic; it is a virtual "way of life" as it is a machine that appeals to car enthusiasts of widely varied interests. Build a winner, and of fun with your friends.

steering wheel, and fuzzy dice. Wash and wax your beauty, and get ready for a weekend high-rise manifold, dual carbs, Goodyear Eagle S/T tires, Cragar wheels, a custom now, but it is more popular than ever. Take a typical small black Chevy motor, and add a "Jimmy" blower, a nice set of Cragar five-spokes and new Goodyear rubber, replaced dash mount, and it's off to the strip for a day of action!

The 1960's, and street machines are the way to go! The '57 Chevy is an "old timer" 1966... How about a powerful gas dragster? A 283 with an .060 overbore and a injection to boot... a mom dad, it only cost $2700!

paint, a striking red and black interior, 283 cubic inch V-8 with 283 horsepower and fuel drove a '55 four-door, but you both knew this machine was real special. Cleaning black did you see your first "real live" '57... Saturday morning walkin' with your dad? Sure, he will dazzle your friends and prove that you know a special car when you see one. Where just do it the easy way and build it stock. Wide "Whites", fuel injection, and dual exhausts that you will need to build your own "prized possession." Build it mild, make it wild, or are made of!

Well, wait no more, because your '57 has arrived, and this "baby" has everything of a shiny new Sport Coupe glistening in the showroom. This is the "stuff" that dreams look that they remember that special date, Saturdays at the drag, or the fond memories imagination of the young at heart. You can tell by the gleam in their eyes and that faraway machine is more than just a "heat car"; it has become a modern classic that captures the embodies the fun of the Fifties like the impressive 1957 Chevy Bel Air Sport Coupe. This Chevy! These were special years in America's past, and no creation from Detroit the Fifties... Bobby socks, drive-ins, fuzzy dice, and everybody's favorite: the 57
